THE BEE HIVE!

New Carpets and Rugs.

The carpenters have now finished the work of enlarging our carpet room. Our stocks of new Carpets and Rugs are so large that we need no additional space to handle them. We believe that we now have a Carpet Department that would be credit to any metropolitan store. From the cheapest Hemp Carpet at 84c. to the best of Axminster at 90c. there is not a roll but will prove of exceptional value for the price asked. We are showing a larger and better assortment of Ingrains and Brussels than ever before. You'll find here the very choicest of patterns to select from, and you have the further advantage of seeing just how the carpet is going to look on your floor. We have also an immense stock of Smyrna and Moquette Rugs and magnificent Art Squares. We know that if you will let us supply your carpet wants we will save you money.

Some Rare Shirt Waist Bargains.

We carried over from last season about ten dozen Shirt Waists. Rather than mix them with the new stock we have placed 'em on a separate counter and marked prices less than cost. The 49c. and 59c. kind are now 29c. Last year's 75c. price has been marked down to 39c. Waists that were lowly priced at $1 and $1.25 are now 59c. There are also a few that were $2 now 99c. These Waists will sell quickly. Come before the best are picked over.

AN OLD-TIME SPORT'S LAMENT.

There ain't no wild West any more, the country's gone to wreck. The good ol' times of long ago have had to skip the dock; The "march o' progress," as it's called, has come a trampin' in. An' hunk the pious banners from the citadels of sin. The gospel's knocked the gambler out, like-wise the ready gun. The Bible and the prayerbook have put the clamps on fun; The organ of the Christian Church has swiped the winnin' cards. An' drowned the fiddle notes to which we used to swing our pards.

The hostile Redmen are no more, their yells no longer tear. The fringe from the feathery wings of the astonished air; Their snaky eyes no longer gleam with eagerness to twine. Their fingers in our hair as in the days of ol' lang syne. Around the reservations now they loaf an' take their ease, Their bronze legs hid in paleface pants quite baggy at the knees; They while the happy hours away in frequent lazy naps. An' keep their cash in motion playin' poker or shootin' craps.

The tenderfoot now strolls about no longer fearing that Lead protests hot from smokin' guns may ventilate his hat. For using water on the side to make his whisky set. In violation of the rules of border etiquette, It's come to such a painful pass that men in tailor clothes Are held in jest as high esteem an' full respect as those That wear wool shirts an' canvas duds, with pistols on the side! I swear it nearly breaks my heart! knocks out my honest pride!

The Courts o' law have downed the rope. Judge Lynch has taken legs. An' left the field to starry chumps with heads like ostrich eggs. An' if a feller pulls his gun and downs another gent It costs a pile o' cash to square the trivial event. An' jes' to think! a funeral is now put up to be. A sad an' serious affair, while in the ol' days we Would chuck his lateness under ground without a sigh or sob. And leave him there to rest in peace while holdin' down his job.

It makes me sore to gaze upon the ruin of a land That once in makin' life a joy could play a winning hand; To see pale tenderfeet come in with cranky Eastern views. Of makin' fancy bitters with the purity of booze. I feel as lost an' out o' place an' short o' nerry sand As any painted Injun would up in the Promised Land! An' I would hit the trail, but where in thunder could I go. Since all the West is ruined by this progress circus show! —Denver Evening Post.

Colonel Baldwin was not present, but was represented by his Attorneys.

The Crowds Are Coming!

The first day's sale of Hechinger's Selling-Out Sale points to the fact that the people are going to take advantage of it.
